New Hampshire Now

A Photographic Documentary Project

New Hampshire Society of Photographic Artists

A Contemporary View of the People, Culture and Landscape of the State

- Photographically document the rich diversity of people, places and events that comprise the state of New Hampshire over a period of 18 months

- Mount local exhibits of selected photographs by region as well as a state wide show

- Edit, sequence and publish a book of the work to accompany the exhibit (a print on demand book would be one possibility)

- Donate photographs and / or digital files to appropriate historical institutions

Subject Catagories

- Posed and candid portraits of people in their work or home environment
- Buildings and structures
- Streetscapes and landscapes that capture both the urban and rural aspects of the state
- Events including state fairs, parades, celebrations sporting events and political rallies
- Industry, manufacturing, city and town services, farms, craftsman, artists and small business

Theme work

- Feel free to identify and explore particular themes and subjects you are interested in to create bodies of work

- Photograph your subjects with your choice of camera gear, digital or film (please no smart phone images)

- Shoot raw files if you are using a digital camera

- If you are shooting film, you will be responsible for providing high resolution files of your work

- Record information about the subject matter you photographed (location, date and names of people who appear prominently in the photograph) for use in creating labels for the exhibit

- Be prepared to explain the project to potential subjects

- Backup your digital files to safeguard your work

All photographs for the project are made after July 31st, 2018

Project Time Table

- photograph the Seacoast region for three months
- Meet in mid September to review and share progress of work
- Move on to other regions of the state as the work progresses
- Schedule regular meetings over the next 18 months to review work progress
- At the end of the project, select work to be included in exhibits and publications, organize files for donation to historical societies, libraries, etc.
